Mayer Brown LLP is a global law firm operating in major cities worldwide. In Germany, more than 70 lawyers in offices in Frankfurt and Duesseldorf advise national and international clients as a full service law firm.

The Frankfurt Banking Practice is seeking a Foreign Qualified Lawyer (m/f/d)

qualified in England and Wales or another common law jurisdiction.

Our practice group represents financial institutions, funds, private equity investors and other market players in a variety of cross-border financing transactions, including leveraged, acquisition, bank/bond and real estate financings and restructurings.

Your profile:

- Admitted as a solicitor (or the equivalent) in a common law jurisdiction.
- Prior experience in finance (particularly banking) is preferred, but not a must.
- A proactive self-starter and happy to assume responsibility.
- A creative, critical thinker who is willing and able to work autonomously with appropriate guidance.
- Fluent in English. Intermediate German skills are preferred, but not a must.

We offer:

- High-quality, international work and training in our English and German law banking team.
- A collegial, global network of offices (including in Asia, Europe, the UK and the US) with which you will have the opportunity to collaborate.
- A forward-thinking, dynamic team and supportive, inclusive environment offering ample opportunities for growth and self-determination.

Our benefits:

- Well-being and diversity initiatives.
- Welcoming workplace in environmentally conscious facilities.
- Subsidised benefits.
- Team-building social events.

Seize your chance to apply for this rare career opportunity by sending a cover letter and CV in English by e-mail to the address shown below. We look forward to meeting you.
